INFORMATION OVERVIEW REGARDING THE DEPOSIT INSURANCE SYSTEM

If a deposit is no longer available, since a banking institution is not able to meet its financial obligations, the Financial Market Guarantee System (Deposit Insurance Fund) shall pay out to the clients a compensation for their deposits up to the amount of the cap. The compensation shall not be in excess of an amount in CZK equivalent to EUR 100,000 per a bank or a cooperative credit union. All deposits kept by a given banking institution for a single client shall be add up in order to calculate the insurance proceeds that should be paid out. E.g., if a given client has an amount equivalent to EUR 90,000 in a savings account and an amount equivalent to EUR 20,000 EUR in a current account, he/she shall only receive a CZK amount equivalent to EUR 100,000. The same procedure shall apply in case that a given banking institution goes by several company names or trademarks.

In certain cases specified by the Act No. 21/1992 Coll., the Banking Act (hereinafter the Banking Act), deposits in excess of EUR 100,000 can be protected in full, too, however only up to an amount equivalent to EUR 200,000. These are, e.g., deposited proceeds of sale of a housing real estate, provided that the conclusive date occurred no later than 3 months from the crediting of the funds to the account, and other deposits enumerated in the Banking Act.

4) Insurance cap applicable to joint accounts

In case of joint accounts (i.e. accounts owned by multiple individuals as envisaged in Section 41e(1) of the Banking Act), each client's share is included separately into his/her cap that is equivalent to EUR 100,000. The protection is not extended to individuals who have a mere right of disposal and are not joint owners of an account.

5) Payout

The deposit insurance scheme from which the compensation is paid out to clients is the Financial Market Guarantee System, specifically the Deposit Insurance Fund (Garanční systém finančního trhu /Fond pojištění vkladů/, Týn 639, 110 00 Praha 1, Telephone: +420 234 767 676, E-mail: info@gsft.cz, www.garancnisystem.cz). Until, the payoff of the compensation for the Client's deposits up to the CZK amount equivalent to EUR 100,000 shall start no later than 7 working days from the conclusive date. In certain cases (e.g. if the funds are registered in an account of a payment institution, etc.) the deadline may be longer (15 working days). If the Client fails to receive the compensation by the above deadlines, the Client should contact the Financial Market Guarantee System (Deposit Insurance Fund) due to the risk in delay and limitation of the time allowed for claiming the compensation. Pursuant to Section 41h(3) of the Banking Act, the objective statute-barred deadline applicable to banking institutions with their registered office in the Czech Republic is 3 years.
